Emergency Broadband Benefit (EBB)

Home Internet is Essential!

You may qualify for free, high speed home internet for your family

The Federal Communications Commission started a temporary program to help eligible families pay for Home Internet service during the COVID-19 Pandemic. The Emergency Broadband Benefit (EBB) includes up to $50 a month discount on Internet service.

Step 1:
Check If You Qualify for the Emergency Broadband Benefit
See if your household fits into any eligible categories below.

Step 2:
Apply for the Emergency Broadband Benefit (see link below)
Choose how you want to apply and submit all necessary documents.

Step 3:
Choose Atherton Fiber as Your Internet Service Provider
Use the search tool in the application to select Atherton Fiber, or another company that offers EBB discounts.

Step 4:
Make A Choice Before EBB Ends
Your Internet Service Provider (ISP) will notify you about 30 days before EBB ends. You must then choose a plan or the ISP will disconnect your service at the end of the 30 days.

Eligibility for affordable Home Internet service if your home meets one of the following criteria:

- Participant in FCC Lifeline; Participant in an existing affordable Home Internet offer
- Child enrolled in the National School Lunch Program (NSLP)
- CalFresh (food stamps) or Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)
- Medi-Cal or Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- Student with a Pell Grant
- Or have a household income under $40,000/year
